

To the Populace of Ynys Fawr I bid thee greetings,

As a Barony we MUST have these Greater Officer Positions filled at all times or we will cease to be the Barony of Ynys Fawr.

Seneschal - Herald - Knight Marshal - A&S Minister - Reeve - Constable

The Barony has a number of positions that are either vacant or will soon be vacant due to Officers who have stepped down or will be soon stepping down. I would therefore like to advertise the following.

Constable: Lothar von Dargun (Chris Belbin) has decided to step down from the position as Constable. For more information on what is required to be the Constable please click on the following link.

Herald: When Baron Hrolf becomes BARON Hrolf, the barony will be without a Herald. That's problematical, because Baronies are required to have Heralds in order to be a Barony.

To do the job you need to:

Be interested in at least some of the aspects of heraldry: making announcements, running court, devising arms and names.

Be willing to learn -- that particularly means being willing to run court, with assistance if needed.

Be able to either attend Baronial Meetings or else get your report to the Seneschal in advance of them.

Be willing to step up at the investiture in three weeks time, or as soon as possible afterwards.

Reeve: Our Reeve the Lady Elspeth Jamieson (Julie Lawler) has worked tirelessly as our Reeve for over two years, she has informed me that she wishes to step down sometime towards the end of this year and now wishes the position to be advertised. The Lady Elspeth has also said that she is happy to remain as a Deputy Reeve in the North. Chirurgeon: Unfortunately we do not have a Chirurgeon and while this Office is not a requirement to keep our Barony running, it may still be nice to have one.
