Words from Their Excellencies Hrolf and Madelaine

Greetings unto the Barony,

We trust all are well and able to withstand the Winter about to be upon us.

We would like to thank our Seneschal for hosting our last event Ludos pro Omnibus. Hrolf very much enjoyed actually coming to something (even if he couldn't walk very well the next day). We are pleased that all of those who attended had a fun time ... and of course there was far too much food.

Congratulations to Lord William du Bonnay for his excellent period dish of meat pie. It was a well-documented, well presented and very tasty entry to the Period Dish competition.

At the Event we announced that we had recommendations from people for Awards and that we had looked favourably upon them. We do not wish to keep handing our awards without tokens. Seeing that we should have some ready soon, we ask that people bear with us for a little longer. Also please consult the Herald if you have not received a token and you are in the Order of Precedence, or if you need a token replaced because you have handed it on to someone else.

Somehow we managed to miss that the 10th of July this year marks the 20th year of the existence of the Barony. It is possibly to short a notice to do anything in the way of a big event for this, but we would be pleased to have a large Social Night that month by way of celebration.

Yours, in service to the Barony and the SCA

Χρῶλφ
Baron Ynys Fawr

Madelaine
Baroness Ynys Fawr

Officer's Reports

A&S Officer: Drusticc inigena Eddarrnonn (Alice Finlayson)

Since last quarterly report we have had: one new contact on the SCA phone, four contacts on the Ynys Fawr facebook group and two contacts via e-mail.

The group has run one event in the barony and one in the Canton of Lightwood.

The Baronial event attracted one of our new comers who joined the facebook group who also brought her daughter. I haven't received any feedback from the event in Lightwood.

The group located in the St Mary's area put on a collegia in February and handed out approximately 30 contact cards. They are intending to hold a collegia weekend in the near future.

A Royal Rapier Event in September

Their Highnesses are greatly wishing to way fare to Ynys Fawr after their Coronation and would like to confirm that this event is indeed occurring on this date and that it would be a suitable event to become a Royal Occasion.

Ynys Fawr's 20th Anniversary

The 10th of July this year marks the 20th year of the Barony's inception.

I understand there is little time to organise something of a grand scale, but perhaps we can do something on a smaller scale in remembrance of our early beginnings. The Seneschal is willing to host a small potluck event if their Excellencies wish. They do, please see proposed events below.

Group Email Alias

I am currently working on getting group email alias up and running for example

Baronial Officer Reports

Baronial Officer Reports were due into Kingdom on the 15th of May unless otherwise stated.

Monthly Baronial Officer Reports must be submitted by the second Thursday of any given month at the very latest to enable me to include them in the Baronial Agendum and please send them as attachments not in the bodies of emails as it takes a great deal of time to reformat things. Thank you.

New Directory

Betty North and I will begin work on an updated Members Directory and welcome members to give their contact details to either Betty or send an email to dave367@iinet.net.au It is our intention to have the revised Directory available by our next meeting in June.

Event Reports

There is an approved excel spread sheet for reporting the financials of an event, if I do not give you a copy when I approve your event, then please ask for one as this makes the Seneschals and Reeves job easier.

Please see attachment 5.

Eric I understand you are currently in discussion with the BoD Treasurer Margarita Deniskaia to get a master spread sheet to make this sort of calculation easier. Could you please copy me in on how this is progressing? Alternatively I wouldn't mind Margarita reviewing our current excel Event Reporting Form. Cheers.

Also when submitting your written event reports, please supply them in a text document rather than a PDF so I do not have to reformat everything when inserting your report into the Baronial Minutes. Thank you.

New Society Seneschals Handbook

Go to <http://www.sca.org/docs/pdf/KingdomSeneschalHandbook.pdf>

Got feedback please pass it on.

The Canton of Lightwood Seneschal: Adelindis filia Gotefridi (Liz Williamson)

Since last meeting Fighter Training has been held twice, seen by one passer-by, Archery & IMOT cancelled. Easter Weekend planned, plus Archery to be run fortnightly subject to weather.

Seneschal: Updated Canton Website <http://lightwood.lochac.sca.org/>

Web Minister: Perran of Lyskyret (Peter Apted)

This month I have updated our Baron and Baroness's email address on the website. Also updated details of our current Southern rapier practice details.

Seneschal: Please update the websites events page with the Royal Hobart Show, Welcome to All Things Medieval Great Southern Gathering 2013 and GSG 2014 etc.

We also need to advertise the A&S Competition across the Kingdom of Lochac.

I also noticed that the Barony of Krae Glas advertise a Google Group, their Facebook Group, a Flickr Group and their own YouTube Channel. Just something to think about.

It was decided that we would not provide a link to the facebook page on our Website at this time.

It was noted that there are a number of photo's that are out of date, Alice to email Peter with the password to our flickr account so that he may attend to this.

Events and Demos since last Meeting

Ludos pro Omnibus

4th May 2013

I believe everybody enjoyed this low key event, my family and I certainly did.

We had 28 Adults and 5 Children. We only charged $7 cheap event and made a small profit of $48.60

I plan on doing something like this on a regular basis at least 2-3 times a year if people are interested with a different theme each time. Maybe I can do it in conjunction with Dan's proposed IMOT's? All monies have been banked, hall has been paid for, and all documentation has been forwarded to the Seneschal and Reeve. Please see attachment 5 below for a breakdown of expenses.

The Lightwood Easter Festivity
Easter 2013

Financial Summary

Lightwood received $500 from the barony, being $300 for food and $200 for hall hire. We spent $288.70 on food including $1.09 GST, and $200 on the hall, and took in $439 in ticket takings including $25 in non-member event fees. That left us with a shortfall of $49.70, out of which the barony has to pay $17 in kingdom levy, $25 in non-member insurance and $37.64 in GST on ticket sales, giving a total shortfall for the event (with the GST on food refunded) of $128.25.

I'm in discussion with the BoD Treasurer Margarita Deniskaia to get a master spread sheet to make this sort of calculation easier. Even with my training in accounting matters, it's making my brain hurt.

Event Details

The Lightwood Alternative Very Informal Totally Simplified Easter Festivity was held over Good Friday, Easter Saturday and Easter Sunday of 2013 at the Surges Bay Hall and Oval. It was advertised on Facebook, the Lochac Announce and Ynys Fawr mailing lists, and with flyers distributed at various other activities. We had visitors from central Ynys Fawr and the new not-even-a-proto-canton-yet in St Marys.

Most people arrived and helped set up the hall on Friday afternoon. We had a soup kitchen and put on some videos of suitably mediievally-themed movies (Danny Kaye in The Court Jester) for Friday, and sat around a fire and sang songs for a while.

On Saturday, we had breakfast and pot luck lunch and a feast in the evening, to which some extra people came including some visitors from The Group Occasionally Known as the College of St Gildas The Wise. We had a couple of short baronial courts and some good food, and in keeping with the canton tradition everyone was well fed. We were going to have more singing on Saturday evening but it got a bit late and everyone was knackered, so never mind.

On Sunday we had the gilded quail egg (easter egg) hunt, and a "battle" between Robert de Bonnay and the children of the group armed with boffer swords. We also had breakfast and lunch, and everyone who stuck around helped tidy up.

Morwenna de Bonnay, Drusticc inigena Eddarrnonn and Adelindis filia Gotefridi ran collegia.

William de Bonnay and some other archers ran archery for most of Saturday, and various people (including Simon) had games and other pastimes. This was very much a BYO event, and people did indeed bring their own entertainments.

It was a very relaxed and low-key event, no particular stress for anyone as far as I could see. The head cook, Mariot de Bonnay, organised the food admirably, and nobody was unhappy with the results. Our four newcomers all enjoyed themselves, and promised to come back. It wasn't huge, but it was still successful for those who were there.

Good Stuff

While we were milling about on the Saturday, a couple with a child from Surges Bay happened by, saw what we were doing, and were so interested that they joined in, then came back for the feast, and even came back the following day. If only we could recruit people that easily all the time! The couple, Chris and Katie Devenish and their son Jack, are new to Tassie, but are already eager to join in archery and any other events we may have, and to get their SCA memberships.

We managed to keep the kids entertained without needing to run movies too often, with a combination of collegia, the battle, and just general socialising. Bad Stuff

The weather was a bit aggravating, particularly the wind. Those of us who camped (two tents and a caravan) had a terrible time of it on Saturday night and Sunday morning, and I had to move myself and my kids into the hall rather than keep getting slapped on the head by the tent roof. This is pretty much unavoidable in the Huon Valley (don't ask me about Cygnet Folk Festival!) so maybe we need an alternative to camping events.

Attendance wasn't brilliant, despite the advertising. We were hampered by not having clear direction on how to calculate profit and loss in this post-GST world, but I'm hoping to get some clear information on that.

I deliberately priced the event to have the same price for attending the whole thing or just the feast, to encourage people to come to more of it, and that seemed to work, but a few people seemed surprised that there was no discount for just attending the feast, so they stayed away. Not sure how to deal with that, to be honest.

Summary

It's good for Lightwood to branch out and try new kinds of events, but we also need to have more control over the finances. $200 for the hall was not bad by mainland standards, but perhaps a cheaper venue would be worth considering. $288.70 for food ended up being $12 per head, which is good for a weekend but more than I'd planned. Future events need to be tighter.

Guidelines for Judging Medieval Crafts Competitions

The following guidelines are designed to assist judges with their task.

Point System

Items entered are judged on the following Criteria and judges may award up to 10 points for each:

Documentation:	max 10 pts
Authenticity:	max 10 pts
Creativity:	max 10 pts
Presentation:	max 10 pts
Complexity/Skill:	max 10 pts

A perfect score in each category would give the entrant a 50/50 - i.e., the maximum points, per judge, are 50.

The total score per entrant is the average of each of the 3 judge's scores out of 50.

Documentation

The following may assist a judge in deciding how many points to award an entrant for documentation. While there are no "hard and fast" rules for what constitutes "good" documentation (and this would vary based upon the item, availability or primary sources, etc.), a general rule of thumb is that no attempt at documentation would gain no points, and brief, but a fulsome analysis of expert sources would score maximum points.

If there is no documentation attached, this mark is	0 pts
Minimal documentation on a small index card	1 pts
Citing a secondary or tertiary source (Bibliography!)	2 pts
Citing 2 secondary sources	3 pts
1 primary & 1 secondary source	4 pts
2 primary sources	5 pts
2 primary sources (with detailed analysis)	6 pts
Accompanying analysis / discussion	add 1-4 pts

Authenticity

Authenticity is defined as the use of materials and techniques to create an authentic piece. Higher scores should be given to items that have been made in a "period" manner and with "period" materials. However, sometimes substitutions are required because of considerations such as cost, availability and time constraints. Ideally, as many authentic materials and processes are preferred, but intelligent discussion on extant items, authenticity, background and reasons for substitution should be marked accordingly. A mark of 10 would be for an item made with authentic construction and documentation to back it up.

Creativity

High scores should be given to items that are unique, or a skilful adaption of an extant piece. However, an item that is a replication should not lose marks - take into consideration its uniqueness and whether it is being adapted for practical use.

Presentation

Presentation is putting the item in its best light. Judges may want to consider whether modern paraphernalia (e.g., plastic containers) have been used to display the item.

Complexity / Skill

Complexity is specific to the art form. Entries should, therefore, be judged in light of what that art form is - not what other art forms might be more difficult. A score of "1" is that for which minimal effort was necessary to complete the item. How much time was involved? How the item was actually made - the tools, individual techniques or parts to make it? How many processes taken to make the item? How much of the item was hand-made or store bought? Again documentation, discussion or talking to the entrant will help in this area.

Comments

All entries are to receive comments. Judges will provide comments and feedback, taking into account the entrant's level of experience. Comments, in particular any criticism of the work, should be made in an instructive manner.

Quarter up to May 2013, Herald's Report for Ynys Fawr

To Karl Faustus von Aachen, Crux Australis Principal Herald, does Declan of Drogheda, Dromond Herald, sends greetings.

Since my last report, the following matters of heraldic note have occurred:

Submissions

Simon Mallory, name and device.

There may have been others sent directly to Crux but I have not received any reports.

Consultations

I've personally consulted heraldry by Simon Mallory and Aiden Brock.

Awards

No Baronial awards have been handed out as we are awaiting the production of new tokens. Those who received promissory notes have been notified.

To the best of my knowledge, no kingdom awards have been handed out in this quarter. (feel free to correct me if I'm wrong on this.)

Voice Heraldry

April at festival, Declan of Drogheda did some Tourney heraldry for the rapier tournaments. At the Lavitsef event in the Canton of Lightwood, Baron Karl Faustus von Aachen did announcements. There was a demonstration event in the mundane town of St Marys, I have no info on who carried out any heraldry at this event. At the Ludos pro Omnibus event I did the court of their Excellencies.

Other Heralds' Activities

A few weekends ago, Baron Hrolf Herjolfssen, myself and LadyDrusticc inigena Eddarnonn spent a pleasant afternoon determining who should be included in the Ynys Fawr Order of Precedence. The final result will be placed on the Ynys Fawr website and paper copies will also be distributed to members of the Barony. A cut-off of "have they been seen in the previous five years" was used to keep numbers to a sane level.

Recommendations for Awards

It seems that most people are awaiting the publication of the new Order of Precedence before making any recommendations.

Sincerely,

Declan of Drogheda, (Darren West)

Pursuivant (from memory), Dromond Herald Ynys Fawr
