Words from Their Excellencies Hrolf and Madelaine

Greetings unto all.

Over the last few weeks the Barony has been busy with practises and training, including the Lightwood archery and pot luck IMOT which was very successful and enjoyable. Their Excellencies will be at Medieval Mayhem and hope to see you all there. We are also hoping to be at St Mary's on the 5th to help with some recruiting for Eastkirk.

Still we are hoping for recommendations and we look forward to talking with people about the plans for what lies ahead. We are also glad to see such active discussion over the Baronial badge. We expect to hear more over Social Night. On that matter, pray remember that 11th April (Social Night in that month) will also mark His Excellencies birthday and he hopes to see people for that mark of his movement into being Truly Ancient.

The new coronets still remain on our agenda. Due to technical difficulties with PDF files we have experienced problems sending specs to various artisans for quotes. This is something which will be dealt with over the next few weeks. We wish the Festival goers a happy trip and do our Barony proud on the field and in Service. Above all else, enjoy yourself (and don't fall off the benches as has been known to happen to some).

-> a USB with the PDF will be given to Darren to convert to another file type, hopefully this will overcome the problem

Yours, in service to the Barony and the SCA

Χρωλφ

Kingdom Seneschal has looked over the quarterly report from last month and is very pleased with Ynys Fawr's growth and development (in all directions!). The one problem that had arisen in the quarter has now been passed on from the Kingdom Seneschal to the Board for consultation but the KS has applauded how it was handled by those involved.

Deputy Seneschal: David de Derlington (David Beresford)

The Canton of Lightwood Seneschal: (Dayle Wilkie)

Lightwood has had some steady numbers to all our activities over the last month with no incidents. The twilight picnic and archery competition was a great success with Lord William de Bonnay taking out first place and Lord Robert de Bonnay taking out second with a score of 99 points and 83 points respectively. Lightwood also had a few members go up and compete in the Loxley Archers competition in Burnie earlier this month and came back with awards two second places and a fourth, well done to those deBonnay's who attended. We have had some news on the Bank account issue and now are able to move forward in opening our own bank account at the Geeveston branch or the Bendigo bank. We are all set to do our part for the Geeveston community centre's Medieval Mayhem, which will happen on the 22nd of March. And on the 29th of March lightwood has been asked to participate with a fighter demo and stall at the "Food is free" event.

Seneschal: This is fantastic news about the account! Huzzah! Congratulations to all the archers and we are all looking forward to Medieval Mayhem.

Web Minister: Perran of Lyskyret (Peter Apted)

During the past month both the North/North West and East Coast geographic regions of Ynys Fawr have added Facebook groups. The administrators of both groups have agreed that these groups will be used only for subject matter specific to their geographic groups. Anything that may be of interest to the Barony as a whole will be posted on the SCA Tasmania group which will still serve as the primary information dissemination point for Ynys Fawr.

I have also updated the Order of Precedence on the Ynys Fawr website, and added links to the various event stewarding pages Nicole provided me with, plus an additional two more Australia oriented pages.

-> Be careful of what is posted online to FB page as it is a public online forum (e.g. hire rates etc)

-> Need notifications to be accessible on website/calander on website/email list

-> Re-design and complete overhaul of website? Do we have to use WordPress?

Business Carried Forward

Advertising

Kevin Hotson suggested advertising ourselves on the Southern Cross Community Notice Board. Dawn Radel suggested the ABC's Community Notice Board as well. Dan has read the policy on one of them and is happy for this to happen. All the info has been passed onto Dan and he is looking into it.

Seneschal: Before an Event is advertised in any media, it must be approved by the Seneschal and must also accompany an approved Event Flyer.

Action: Need to chase up Dan to see if anything is happening on this front.

-> We will look and see what is in the Chatelaine Box at Mayhem as to whether new flyers have been made.

K&D Sausage Sizzle

Suggest a display detailing where the monies are going / Garb?

Action: Nicole has put in applications for Woolworths Moonah and Bunnings Derwent park (only Friday nights available from now on), trying to find K&D site and Mitre 10 application processes.

-> Nicole will call them and book in for 2015 and will put us down for any cancellation possibilities

Fighter Practice and Fundraiser

Drinks and a sausage sizzle, could set up BBQ at Archery field and let the smell get the soccer and cricket players to come over.

-> We need someone to take this on as their own and champion it (lots of work getting things before BBQ even starts)

Fighter Practice

->David has looked at the Old Heritage Stand area offered to us. It is roughly 10m x 14m (~100m² space). We would have access 24/7 and the space has its own alarm system and keypad. There are high ceilings on one side of main room which would allow two handed combat indoors but can still use oval for training also. Has a galley kitchen roughly 8m long and 2m wide with microwave and stove tops (oven?) and room for a fridge. The smaller entrance area on one side could be used for storage, is roughly the size of a small container, this storage would be available year round even during other bookings of area. There is the potential for undercover archery in the underground stadium area. Archery would also be available on the oval when it is not in use with appropriate risk assessment papers handed in (war scenarios also possible).

-> roughly 1/3 of vcarpet is mouldy and needs replacing this would be at our own cost (could use second hand carpet?, is underlay affected?) This would need to be done sooner rather than later. Walls also need to be painted. Colours of walls need to be approved by RAST but otherwise do as we like.

->The price is $100/month for hire +GST (= $110/month overall), which is cheaper than Cambridge and allows 24/7 access. We would be looking at a 5 year lease and an option to extend for another 5 years after that.

-> second look at possible new site will be THIS Sunday (23rd March) if everyone at this is happy we will progress this as quickly as possible to take lease to Rowany Festival for BoD approval.

Vote taken on whether to move to new building: Moved by Ben, Seconded by Peter and Dayle

Votes were: Yes (unanimous) No (none)

Motion passed

We need to check if the Baronial first aid kits have been returned.

-> Not in Archery shed. David said he can purchase a Medium size leisure first aid kit for $70 instead of its normal $90 price.

-> motion put forward to buy first aid kit Moved by : Peter Seconded by: Dayle

Vote was unanimous, david will now purchase first aid kit

Ben suggested we need a formal published process for running events.

Action: Need to get a Ynys Fawr based one that covers things such as coffee, billeting, travel times, etc that are more specific to Ynys Fawr events.

-> Nicole will write this and hand to other stewards to add their own thoughts and opinions too afterwards.

Baronial Badge: Will start to kick ideas around at social nights and training. Can vote at training one Sunday by putting tokens in cups above A4 pictures of each proposed badge.

-> Proxy voting online for those not at training

-> Voting held over an entire week (e.g. social night to training)

-> vote to be held in second week of May!

New Business

Chance to do Display at Kingston Linc

Sara Burgess (the librarian at Kingston Linc) is responsible for organising displays at the Kingston Linc. She is looking for groups or people interested in a display after April. They have either lockable glass cases (of various sizes) or display boards for presentation, displays are for a month. You can display items you use as part of your re-enactments, events, posters or pictures of events, it's up to you. They require that we fill in a Display Application form and set up and dismantle our own display. Thoughts?

-> Nicole to email and look at display area (size, shelve height etc) and type up some A4 sheets to accompany items to detail who, what, where, when and why they were used and made.

-> is based upon YFTOP II and uses its sites and concepts

-> fixed event costs total $2875.00

-> minimum entry price for 60 paying people is therefore $49.00 each

-> this price DOES NOT include accommodation

-> cancellations after a certain date will have a no refund policy attached

-> max attendance of 120 people

-> local artisan's to make A&S prizes

-> would require temporary separate account for tracking money by Exchequer

-> motion to put in bid moved by Ben, seconded by Nicole

Vote was : all for, none against

Comments:

Overall this event became a proof of concept and trial run of the facilities in relation to Crown Event Bid (May Crown Tournament 2015). Part of this was working out the absolute minimum costings that this venue could run with and still provide a high level event for patrons. In this regard I am going to claim the event as a success.

The main reason for the very minimal profit/just breaking even was due to the change of venue from Surges Bay to Cygnet. The site (Carmel Hall) at Cygnet was some $180 more expensive. (but very worth it imo)

Given the quality of the venue, food and activities provided I believe that a similar event would still provide good value to patrons at a substantially increased price - base price from $35 to $40 (Base price for Tournament and Feast was just $22.00 + $5.00 for non-members)

Feedback on the hall that will be implemented for future events at this venue:

- place high table at other end of the hall (on stage - more useable floor space/ no "walk of shame")
- restrict access to the kitchen for everyone who is not actually assisting with the event in the kitchen
- make washing up facilities available outside the kitchen
- event patrons to remove their own rubbish - if you brought it you take it home

Dear Anna,

Sorry to disturb you, but as you well know I have just completed a wonderful show on the SCA with the help of Taryn East. A show that is at this moment doing the rounds about the country.

However this time I am doing a piece for tropfest with action swashbuckling duelists from all around the world.

We will be going online and have them fighting each other until the time of tropfest, and that is where we find out who wins from the group and which character gets the philosophers stone as the prize.

The whole thing is scripted of course.

Now I already have 24 fighters and they have their own basic costumes, but I was thinking of having each fighter sponsored by a Barony or Canton by means of bits of add on clothing or amour, as well a tabard for loan to show their colours.

For example, Rowany may like to sponsor a swashbuckling character from England named Sir Caron Marrow, so they let him borrow for the shoot a beautiful hat, their best tabard showing the colours as well as emblem and shoulder armour because it looks cool. Maybe go one step further and let him or her wear their best looking jacket.

Or possibly contribute a weapon for them to fight with

Then he becomes Sir Caron Marrow of the Barony of Rowany.

Then they sit back and watch the tropfest film or short webisodes to see how their character goes in the story. At the end of the shoot they get back everything borrowed.

As a result the SCA get a chance to get involved in what possibly could be this years winning international tropfest, as well show the world the SCA and the Baronies as well as Canton's spectacular clothing and colours.

This of course is completely flexible and we can come to some other arrangement if you wish.

It is a lot of fun and I hope you guys like the idea.

I look forward to your reply.

Yours truly

Justin
